by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

SECTION ____.

Any person, who is transferred as an adult to criminal court for trial as an adult or is an adult but is age nineteen (19) and under at the time of the commission of the offense, who is, or has been, convicted of a violation of §§ 39-13-503-, 39-13-504, or 39-13-505 or is, or has been, convicted of an attempt to violate any of these sections, and who has no prior adult convictions for any felony and did not use a deadly weapon during the commission of the offense, may petition the sentencing court to be released from community supervision as set forth in § 39-13-525 subsections (a) - (d) after the offender has been on supervision for two (2) calendar years following the offender's release from prison. This section shall not be interpreted to alter or change any registration requirement or sex offender registry, nor shall it apply to any conviction for rape of a child or any conviction for the attempt to commit such offense.
